Luke 13:15

INTRODUCTION

Today's texts offer instruction and encouragement for all who are occasionally overwhelmed by the "unhappy business" of life. Jesus urges us to take care and be on guard against all kinds of greed. We who have died with Christ in holy baptism have also been raised with him and are encouraged to elevate our thinking, seeking the "things that are above." To that end we seek the sustenance of the Lord's supper and the encouragement of God's word.

WELCOME

Welcome in the Name of our Savior Jesus Christ, who welcomes people of every race, culture,

with Pat & Lauren Amick

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

In the name of the Father,
and of the ✠ Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The presiding minister addresses the assembly.
Baptized into Christ, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Merciful God,
you free us to love others,
but we neglect our neighbors and follow our own way.
You lead us by the Spirit of joy and peace,
but we turn away from the abundant life you offer.
You surround us with patience, kindness, and generosity,
but we grow weary in doing what is right.
In your mercy, forgive us.
Do not give up on us.
Heal us, break our bonds,
and show us the path of life.
Amen.

The presiding minister announces God's forgiveness.
You belong to Christ Jesus and you are God's children through faith.
In the cross of ☩ Christ,
and through the power of the Holy Spirit,
your sins are forgiven.
Clothed with Christ, you are a new creation.
Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Benevolent God,
you are the source, the guide, and the goal of our lives.
Teach us to love what is worth loving,
to reject what is offensive to you,
and to treasure what is precious in your sight,
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

The assembly is seated.

Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12-14; 2:18-23

A reading from Ecclesiastes.

²Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

¹²I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

¹³I applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven;

it is an unhappy business that God has given to humans to be busy with.

¹⁴I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun, and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

^{2:18}I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to my successor,

¹⁹and who knows whether my successor will be wise or foolish?
Yet my successor will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity.

²⁰So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun, ²¹because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it.

This also is vanity and a great evil.

²²What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun?

²³For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation;
even at night their minds do not rest.

This also is vanity.

The reading concludes:

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALMODY: Psalm 49:1-12

The cantor sings the refrain, then the assembly repeats it.

Refrain

The assembly joins the cantor in singing the boldface verses.

¹ Hear this, | all you peoples;
give ear, all you who dwell | in the world,

² you of high de- | gree and low,
rich and | poor together.

³ My mouth shall | speak of wisdom,
and my heart shall meditate on | understanding.

⁴ I will incline my ear | to a proverb
and set forth my riddle up- | on the harp. Refrain

⁵ Why should I be afraid in | evil days,
when the wickedness of those at my | heels surrounds me,

⁶ the wickedness of those who put their trust in | their own prowess,
and boast of | their great riches?

⁷ One can never re- | deem another,
or give to God the ransom for an- | other's life;

⁸ for the ransom of a life | is so great
that there would never be e- | nough to pay it,

⁹ in order to live forev- | er and ever
and never | see the grave.

¹⁰ For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stu- | pid they perish
and leave their wealth to those who come | after them.

¹¹ Their graves shall be their homes forever, their dwelling places from generation to | generation,

though they had named lands af- | ter themselves.

¹² Even though honored, they cannot | live forever;
they are like the | beasts that perish. Refrain

SECOND READING: Colossians 3:1-11

A reading from Colossians,

¹If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above,
where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

²Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth,

³for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

⁴When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

⁵Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly:
sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry).

⁶On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient.

⁷These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life.

⁸But now you must get rid of all such things:

anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth.

⁹Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices

¹⁰and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator.

¹¹In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, enslaved and free, but Christ is all and in all!

The reading concludes:

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The assembly welcomes the gospel.

The cantor sings the verse—a setting of Matt. 5:3.

Blessed are the | poor in spirit,*
for theirs is the king- | dom of heaven.

All repeat the acclamation.

GOSPEL: Luke 12:13-21

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

¹³Someone in the crowd said to [Jesus,]

“Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.”

¹⁴But Jesus replied,

“Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?”

¹⁵And Jesus said to them, “Take care!

Be on your guard against all kinds of greed, for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.”

¹⁶Then Jesus told them a parable:

“The land of a rich man produced abundantly.

¹⁷And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’

¹⁸Then he said, ‘I will do this:

I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

¹⁹And I will say to my soul,

Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years;
relax, eat, drink, be merry.’

²⁰But God said to him, ‘You fool!

This very night your life is being demanded of you.

And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’

²¹So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

The gospel is concluded.

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The assembly is seated.

SERMON

The assembly proclaims the word of God in song.

APOSTLES CREED

God's word is further proclaimed as we confess our faith with the whole church.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

An assisting minister invites the assembly into prayer.

In solidarity with all creation, we join our voice to the voice of the whole church and pray for the needs of the world.

A brief silence.

Renew in your church a perspective of life beyond worldly pursuits. Build an enthusiasm to embrace life in Christ, so that Christ, the life of the world, is revealed to everyone. God of grace, hear our prayer.

Revitalize and protect the treasures of wild places. Teach all people to value the earth, winds, waters, trees, and animals, the gifts that make life possible on this planet. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Speak wisdom to any in positions of power, that they cease practices of divisiveness, insult, and oppression. Clothe all people in your image, and establish equity and peace. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Reveal your loving presence in the lives of people suffering hunger and need, illness and grief, pain and fear (especially). Give strength to those who give care, and equip them with compassion as they make your love known. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Store up in this congregation a full measure of gratitude and generosity. Guide the work of treasurers and all who attend to financial matters. Support those whose work in our community is difficult and demanding; make us mindful of the toil that goes unnoticed. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Gracious God, hear us when we pray ...
A time is provided for individuals to offer an intercession.
God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Receive our thanks for the lives of your saints who now rest from their labors. Give us wisdom through their witness and encourage us in love as we continue our lives in the world. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

The presiding minister concludes the prayers.
Trusting in your lovingkindness, we place our prayer and hope in you, in the name of Jesus Christ.
Amen.

PEACE

The presiding minister and the assembly greet each other.
In Christ we have been reconciled to God, let us now be reconciled with one another. The peace of Christ be with you always.
And also with you.

Meal

God feeds us with the presence of Jesus Christ.

The assembly is seated.

Let us pray.

Creator God,

Strengthen us at your table with these gifts of the earth and our labor, that we may work for the good of all;
through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The presiding minister greets the assembly and invites all present to give thanks.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

The presiding minister continues:

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

Words of Institution.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,

be all honor and glory, now and forever.
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, we pray:

Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
